Bruner announces support for Tim Fox for Attorney General

BUTTE, MONT. -- Lee Bruner, Republican candidate for Montana Attorney General, congratulated Tim Fox on a well-run and hard-fought campaign. “I want to offer my full support to Tim in his campaign to become Montana’s next Attorney General.”

A Butte lawyer with significant legal experience, Lee said, “I am pleased and humbled by the support Montanan’s have shown me in this campaign. I am taking this opportunity to thank all who supported my campaign with their efforts and donations. The passion my supporters and excellent staff brought to this campaign is humbling.” Bruner continued by saying, “Without the encouragement and understanding of my wife Pollann and our three boys, this campaign would not have been possible. Campaigning is truly a family affair.”

Bruner said, “We ran a good race which clarified the issues facing Montana and defined a direction I believe Montanans need their next Attorney General to take. There are so many wonderful Montanans whom I am thankful to have met and worked with.”
